Graduates with University Honors

In addition to their major studies, all honors graduates have completed a comprehensive program in general education. University Honors is a distinction reserved for those few who have excelled in the university's most rigorous course of general and major education. Typically, those students have completed at least six honors general education courses, maintained a 3.50 GPA or higher in both honors and all other courses, demonstrated proficiency in mathematics and a foreign language, completed a reading list, and written an honors thesis in their major field.

Convocation Participants

Kiely Anne Fisher, the daughter of John and Sheryl Fisher, was born and raised in Chambersburg, Pennsylvania. An active participant in her high school symphony and choir, she was privileged to sing at the Pennsylvania State Choir Festival her senior year. Since coming to BYU she has had the opportunity to sing with an audition choir each year: Women's Chorus, Concert Choir, and currently the Brigham Young University Singers. This month Kiely will tour the northeastern United States and Canada with the group, beginning April 25 in Washington, D.C., and concluding four weeks later in Michigan.

Rosa Olífblish García Castorena, the daughter of Oscar Garcia Garcia and Rosa Maria Castorena de Garcia, was born in Mexico City. She began studying music in a small town in Mexico when she was 10 years old. Five years later she transferred to the National School of Music in Mexico City, where she finished high school. At the age of 13 she went to Albuquerque, New Mexico, for six months and earned first flute distinction in the high school band and then the state orchestra. As she went on to perform with orchestras in Mexico, her parents supported and sacrificed for her music.

Robert Henry Goff II, the son of Orla and Janet Goff, grew up in Grants Pass, Oregon. He is graduating with majors in classical studies and Russian. His lifelong interest in the former Soviet Union was augmented by a mission to the North Caucasus region of Russia and subsequent study of the Russian, Armenian, and Church Slavonic languages here at BYU. His other interests include early Christianity, history, hiking, and radio. Robert and his wife, Rachel, have one son, Henry, and are expecting another boy in August.

Janae Pickard, the daughter of Bruce and Lori Pickard of Orem, Utah, is graduating with a bachelor of arts degree in linguistics and minors in French and language and computers. A member of Phi Eta Sigma National Honor Society, she has attended BYU on several academic and university scholarships, always nurturing a love for studying languages. To improve her proficiency with French, she spent a semester in France. After serving in the Sweden Stockholm Mission, she learned and grew to love the Swedish language; and when she returned she participated in the BYU Scandinavian Choir. Janae has also taken courses in Japanese and Spanish.

Joel Matthew Purles, the son of Michael and Jerry Purles, was born and raised in Sandy, Utah. He transferred to BYU from USC after serving a mission in Phnom Penh, Cambodia, and is graduating with a bachelor of arts degree in American studies. Having been employed steadily since he was eight years old, he has learned that hard, honest work and academic success are inexorably intertwined—and result in numerous scholarships. Several hours each week he volunteers in various church, school, and community programs. Joel is an avid fan of both the ocean and cosmopolitan life and will be returning to Los Angeles this fall to attend the USC School of Law.

Graduation Speaker

Van C. Gessel, dean of the College of Humanities at Brigham Young University and former chair of the Department of Asian and Near Eastern Languages, is a professor of Japanese. He received his undergraduate degree in political science at the University of Utah and his master's and doctorate at Columbia University. Before coming to BYU in 1990, he was on the faculty at Columbia, Notre Dame, and UC–Berkeley.

Honored five times with his department's student award for excellence in teaching, he was also named the P. A. Christensen Lecturer in Humanities and presented a forum address in February 1995. He is the author of The Sting of Life: Three Contemporary Japanese Novelists (Columbia University Press, 1989) and editor of The Showa Anthology and two volumes on modern Japanese novelists for the Dictionary of Literary Biography series. He has also published six translations of literary works by the Japanese Christian novelist Endo Shusaku.

Dean Gessel has served in campus wards and stakes for seven years and was recently released as president of the BYU 16th Stake. Now he and his wife, Elizabeth, have been called to preside over the Oregon Portland Mission beginning July 2005. The Gessels are the parents of two children.
