Convocation Participants

Jessica Arnold is graduating in English with a minor in editing. She is grateful for the many editing opportunities that BYU has afforded her and has particularly enjoyed her internship at the Religious Studies Center, where she worked for the past year. She has been accepted into Emerson College's publishing and writing master's program and hopes to someday work at a publishing house. Jessica is from Tempe, Arizona. She would like to thank her parents, Cory and Rochelle, and her younger brother, Jonathan, for their love and support during the past four years.

Dallin John Bailey, of Snowflake, Arizona, is graduating with an English language major and a minor in communication disorders. Following graduation he will begin a master's degree in speech-language pathology at BYU. He is married to Heather Bahlmann, of Orem, Utah, who is graduating this semester with a mathematics education major and a Spanish education minor. They were recently blessed with a daughter, Amelia Susan.

Evan Gordon Crockett is the son of Barry and Lynette Crockett. He was raised in Orem, Utah. Evan is graduating with a major in English and minors in history and music. Highlights of his undergraduate experience include singing with the Men's Chorus, the BYU Concert Choir, and, currently, University Singers; spending part of the summer of 2009 studying English and history at the University of Cambridge as part of the Pembroke-King's Program; and learning from many distinguished professors and enthusiastic students. Evan plans to work for a year and then attend graduate school.

Bethany Rae Daniel is from Apex, North Carolina, and is the oldest of John and Stephanie Daniel's four children. A French studies major with a German minor, Bethany will be pursuing a master's degree in second-language teaching at BYU. Her interest in foreign language learning and teaching began at the age of 12 when she lived in Switzerland for a year with her family. Some of her favorite experiences as an undergraduate student include working as a part-time secretary for the French Department and as a French 101 instructor. Bethany enjoys reading historical fiction and watching foreign films, and she looks forward to viewing the Eiffel Tower in person.

Brianna Leigh Hulme is the seventh of eight children born to Jonathan and Sherri Hulme. She and her twin sister, Brittany, are the second set of twins in her family. Born and raised in Houston, Texas, Brianna is a humanities major with an art history emphasis. She discovered the arts at a young age through her parents. They both served missions in Spain and took her there several times as a child. As a 10-year-old, Brianna remembers touring the Prado Museum in Madrid and falling in love with the art. She also studied piano for 10 years, played the French horn, and sang in three regional and two all-state choirs. A National Merit scholar, Brianna has consistently been awarded a place on the dean's list. She participated in a Study Abroad program through the Art History Department involving travel to Greece, Italy, Spain, France, and England. She also served as a full-time missionary in the Thailand Bangkok Mission.

Jennifer Manwaring Martin is graduating magna cum laude in German with an emphasis in literature and is a member of Delta Phi Alpha, the German Honors Society. Her husband, Bryan Martin, is also graduating this year in sociology. Jennifer is the youngest of six children in her family to attend BYU. Jennifer played percussion in the BYU Philharmonic Orchestra for three semesters and sang with the Women's Chorus. After graduation she plans to pursue a career in editing.

V. Chad Nielsen is the son of James and Giana Nielsen. He was born in Herriman, Utah, and served in the Texas McAllen Mission. Chad is receiving his bachelor of arts in Spanish with a minor in music. At BYU he sang with the BYU Concert Choir and the Men's Chorus and also served as a teaching assistant for the Physical Science 100 course. Chad will be attending the University of Utah's accelerated second-degree nursing program after graduation.

Maria Elise Pack is the daughter of Gary and Sylvia Pack and a sister to six brothers. She grew up in West Jordan and Layton, Utah, and was introduced to literature and music at a young age by her well-read musician parents. Due largely to her upbringing, she chose to be an English major at BYU with a minor in music. After receiving a bachelor's degree in English, Maria will attend graduate school in English at BYU with an emphasis in American literature. Apart from her literary studies, she has also spent significant time in her undergraduate years singing in the Women's Chorus and the BYU Concert Choir. Maria served a mission in Kyiv, Ukraine. She is engaged to be married in May to Gordon Milligan, who is pursuing a degree in history education at Weber State University.

Erica Peterson will graduate later this year with a bachelor of music performance with an emphasis in flute. Erica has had many great opportunities during her musical studies, including membership in BYU's Philharmonic and Chamber Orchestras in 2010–2011. She has performed in master classes with renowned flutists Bradley Garner, Jill Felber, Tara O'Conner, and Elaine Jorgensen. Erica has participated in various music competitions and received numerous awards, including winner of the BYU Summer Festival with a recital performance in 2006, winner of the BYU flute studio concerto competition in 2009 and 2010, and finalist in the BYU concerto competition in 2011. Last summer she took first place at the Areon Summer Flute Institute in San Jose, California. Erica currently studies with April Clayton and Hillary Kimball and will continue studying flute performance in a master's program at the University of Utah this fall.

Amber Seeley is graduating with a bachelor of music degree in flute performance. She will be continuing her flute education in the master's program at BYU this fall. Amber was a national finalist for the Music Teachers National Association young artist competition in 2010 and a BYU concerto competition winner in 2009. She hopes to obtain as much education as possible and to use her talents to help those around her.

Stewart Daniel Smith is the oldest of the five children of Stewart and Carolee Smith. Daniel was raised in a small farming community west of Blackfoot, Idaho. From 2007 to 2009 he served in the Brazil Porto Alegre North Mission. Daniel is graduating with a BA in linguistics and minors in Portuguese and TESOL (Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages). He will pursue the linguistics master's program at Brigham Young University this fall.

Mariah Wilson is from Palo Alto, California, and is an honors student graduating with a bachelor of music in piano performance. She has toured with BYU's Philharmonic Orchestra playing the violin and also as a member of University Singers and hopes to pursue a career in conducting. Mariah has performed in Wisconsin, Utah, California, France, and Belgium. She has been deeply touched by the influence of BYU faculty; her colleagues in music; the missionaries of Paris, France; and her parents, Dow and Lynne.

Edward S. Cutler was raised in Salt Lake City. After completing his LDS mission in Korea he transferred from the University of Utah to BYU. He first met his soon-to-be-wife, Mary Lynn, while she was also serving in the Korea Seoul West Mission. At BYU he majored in English and Korean, graduating in 1990. In 1992 he completed an MA in English at BYU and in 1997 a PhD in literature from the University of California, San Diego. He has been a member of the BYU faculty since 1996 and chair of the English Department since 2006. He teaches classes in 19th- and early-20th-century American literature. He has published on the development of modernist aesthetics and is currently completing a study of American romantic philosophy with a focus on the work of the American poet Walt Whitman. Ed and Mary Lynn have three children: Daniel, a BYU student currently serving as an LDS missionary in Paris, France; Sylvia, who will be a freshman at BYU this fall; and Lily, a five-year-old daughter with magic hair that keeps them young.
